The Kittson County History Center and Museum is located in the city of Lake Bronson and houses its collection in a number of filled-to-capacity buildings including, in part, the above Transportation Building, and the Machinery Building seen below. The museum includes turn-of-the-century lifestyle exhibits, a Red River ox cart, a 1904 Rambler, and a 1929 Harley Davidson. Outside exhibits include a depot, caboose, church, country school, log cabin and more. A research library with newspaper microfilm, county census records and excellent genealogy resources is also a part of this little gem.

For more information contact: Kittson County Historical Society, 332 East Main Street, Lake Bronson, MN 56734; call (218) 754-4100 or E-mail: history@wiktel.com.
